

Lafayette Lace Day
May 7, 2005
9am-4pm
Free Admission
Christ United Methodist Church
3610 S. 18th Street
Lafayette, IN 47909

The Lafayette Lacers invite you to a Lace Day on May 7, 2005, 9am-4pm, at Christ United Methodist Church, 3610 S. 18th Street, Lafayette, Indiana. There will be vendors, demonstrations, a program that includes an informal talk and a game of Lace Jeopardy. Everyone is encouraged to bring lace projects to display (space will be provided).

Vendors will include John Aebi, Kathy Kirchner, The Lacemaker and Debbie Beever of Lace and Such.

Schedule of events:

Doors open at 9am (vending throughout the day except during program between 1-2pm)
10:30-11:30 demonstrations (in/out of the valley in buckspoint with Chris Meyer, beginning tatting video with assistance, split rings and how to use a picot gauge in tatting with Regina Brummett, designing lace on a computer with Jo Ann Eurell, and designing with pencil and paper exhibit.)
11:30a-1pm lunch on your own or by pre-order (see additional form)
1-2pm a program with an informal talk and a game of Lace Jeopardy (vendors closed)
2-3pm demonstrations continue from the morning
3-4pm Raffle

A box lunch is available and must be ordered by April 29th (see additional form)

A two-day workshop with Debbie Beever will be held on May 8-9, 2005 at Cathy Kozlowski's. Twelve hours of instruction in intermediate or beginning torchon bobbin lace. Plans are for beads in torchon, celtic torchon patterns or beginning torchon instruction. A maximum of 10 people will be accepted at $70 for 12 hours of class instruction. Lunch will be included in this two-day workshop.

For more information, directions and reservations contact Bette Carson at bcarson@insightbb.com or 765-494-3959 (day), 765-463-1122 (eve).